

Tales of Tale Tellers

Rizvi College of Education commemorated International English Day on the 22nd of April 2022 which is traditionally observed as the birth and death anniversary of William Shakespeare. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Nahida Mandviwala, the Principal and English Language Club coordinator, the FY.B.Ed. English method student-teachers organized an exhibition titled “Tales of Tale Tellers”. This exhibition aimed to develop the love for English Literature and foster reading culture among the attendees.

The day of the exhibition witnessed a storm of attendees, which included school students, school teachers, the SY.B.Ed students and faculty members of the college. While the groups presented, the judges, Ms. Rutika Ajgaonkar, Rizvi Springfield School (SSC) English teacher and Ms. Monika Sharma, Rizvi Springfield School (CBSE) English teacher evaluated their exhibition. At the end the results were announced where the ‘Ghostbusters’ group took first place and were awarded certificates. All group members received a certificate of participation.
