ALUMNI ROLE IN INSTITUTIONAL FUNCTIONING AND STUDENT WELFARE

CAREER GUIDANCE TALK GIVEN BY ALUMUNUS MR.ZUBIN IRANI -2022

The Placement cell & Alumni association of Rizvi College of education jointly organized a career counselling on the topic “teaching abroad as a profession” on 12th February 2022 at 12 noon. Securing a job abroad and getting settled with that is a dream of many students. But it becomes difficult for them to find the right institution of their choice and the skills and job expectations of these institutions. At such times, consulting an overseas experienced person in the area can help them to sail through this confusion. It is with this objective that the talk was arranged.

Mr.Zubin Irani, an alumnus of the college who is a teacher in New Zealand, was the speaker. Mr. Irani is Assistant Head of Mathematics in Lynfield College New Zealand. Mr. Irani gave a comprehensive picture of the profession of teaching in New Zealand covering the following areas

- Teaching as a profession in New Zealand: Opportunities and Scope
- Life of a teacher
- Challenges faced when teaching abroad
- Curriculum & Pedagogy: How is it different from India?
- Teaching during pandemic- E –learning. The presentation was very informative and interactive. The speaker patiently addressed all the queries through his answers.

ACTION RESEARCH VIVA-VOICE TAKEN BY ALUMUNUS IN-2022

The action research viva voice holds significant importance in the context of an action research project. RES's RCOED invited alumnus in the year 2022 for taking VIVA-VOICE of final year students. Evaluation Afreen Shaikh, Fatima Sayyad, Shagufta Rehmani, Anushka Mungeakar were the guest who had taken viva on 27/04/2022 with the staff members of college. The viva voice provided an opportunity for the researcher to present their work and findings to a panel of experts. It allows for an evaluation and assessment of the research project's quality, rigor, and relevance. Our alumnus checked the accountability and Validation of the research work done by student teachers. The viva voice served as a platform to demonstrate the researcher's accountability for their work. It allows the researcher to validate the methods used, the data collected, and the interpretation of findings. It helps establish the credibility and reliability of the research.

SELF-AWARENESS AND SKILL BUILDING OF STUDENT TEACHERS – 3 DAYS
 WORKSHOP CUNDUCTED BY BRENDON MASCIEL-2020

Rizvi College of Education had organised a 3 day webinar on Self-Awareness and Skill Building of Student Teachers from 12th May 2020 to 14th May, 2020. The resource person for the webinars was RES’s RCOED alumnus Mr. Brendon Masciel, a strength based coach, trainer and speaker. The keynote speaker conducted insightful and dynamic webinars which kindled a new spark for teaching amongst novice teachers. The Day 1 of the Webinar was on Building self-awareness and self-acceptance amongst novice teachers. The session highlighted how teachers need to be innovative, develop a bond with the class, go beyond the lesson plan, reflect while one action. And for this one self-awareness is extremely vital. Day 2 of the Webinar was on ‘Teaching as a Dynamic Profession’. The session highlighted ways how teachers can be dynamic in the teaching profession. Self-exploration as one of the most essential ways was highlighted as being essential for one's development. Day 3 of the webinar conducting by Mr. Brendon Masciel was titled ‘Teaching isn’t a Personality Contest’ which highlighted many aspects of a teacher’s personality. The webinar revolved around the inevitable traits or rather the attitude which defines the personality of a successful and respected teacher. All's well that ends well, a significant 3 day webinar journey which began on 12th May 2020 was concluded on 14th May 2020. Over 300 participants attended the webinar and e-certificates were emailed. The webinar surely opened doors to the participants to rethink what is necessary rather than what is expected or stereotyped by society from teachers of today.

DIWALI CELEBRATION AND TUCK SHOP JUDGED BY ALUMUNUS- 2019

A tuck shop is a small, food-selling retailer. The term "tuck", meaning food, is slang and probably originates from such phrases as "to tuck into a meal". It is closely related to the Australian English word "tucker", meaning food. A tuck shop typically sells confectionery, sandwiches, finger-food, such as sweets, crisps, soft drinks and such. A food fest in the light of tuck shop was organised at Rizvi Education Society on 27th October, 2018 by student council with the theme "States of India" depicting the rich culture, variety and tradition of our country, India. The 2nd Year B.ed students took active part for the event. For this event Student council invited two judges Ms. Bushara Qureshi and Ms. Shabnam from the batch 2017-2019. The batch was divided into 5 groups and each was allotted a specific state of which they were to prepare the authentic delicacies. The students dressed up in the traditional attire of the states they were representing. By 10 am they reached the venue and were given time to organise their stalls and prepare the food. The entire task was divided into each student and carried out their part efficiently with great enthusiasm. They decorated the stalls representing the state they were allotted. The states were Punjab, Uttar Pradesh (Lucknow), Kerala and Telangana (Hyderabad) and Rajasthan. The organising students left no stones unturned to serve the food with great hospitality to anyone who visited their stalls. Soon the judges came to taste the food and witness a bit of little India inside Rizvi campus. They were awestruck by the effort that the students showcased and praised them for their hard work.
