

‘Whispers of the Muse: A Symphony of Poetry and Creativity’

by English Language Club to mark

World Poetry And Creative Minds Day

With NEP 2020 emphasizing on the significance of holistic and multidisciplinary education that fosters creativity, critical thinking, and cultural understanding the English Language Club set to mark ‘World Poetry and Creative Minds Day, on 19th April, 2024, a day dedicated to honouring the beauty and power of poetry in all its forms.

This special event titled ‘Whispers of the Muse: A symphony of Poetry and Creativity’ orchestrated by the spirited SYB.Ed. students of Rizvi College of Education on April 19th 2024, was a testament to the vibrant spirit of artistic expression. The session enabled student teachers to not only learn about the different forms of poetry it also opened doors to listen to some noteworthy poems written by legendary poets across different language viz, Urdu, Hindi and English. Further students were also asked to write their own poems on their journey at RCoEd. The session enabled participants to reflect on the profound beauty and inspiration shared, reaffirming their commitment to creativity, unity, and national values through the recitation of the national pledge and anthem. The event served as a poignant reminder of the transformative power of poetry in enriching lives and fostering a sense of community.
