ABOUT THE THEME
Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav-
'Janjatiya Vikas-Tribal Empowerment'

To mark India's 77th Independence Day, RES's Rizvi College of Education is organizing its 6th Edition of Inter College & Inter School Digital Poster Making Competition, themed 'Janjatiya Vikas – Tribal Empowerment.' Tribal Empowerment is an essential aspect of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, as it recognizes the contributions and rights of indigenous communities in India. Focusing on the goal of Developed India, in alignment with the Panch Pran, one of this year's theme for Independence Day is Tribal Empowerment. Understanding the significance of this theme RES's Rizvi College of Education is organising the competition to encourage students to celebrate Resilience, Progress and Inclusive Development of India's Tribal Heritage.

The posters can be based on sub themes-

- Tribal Freedom Fighters: Commemorate the special contribution of tribal community towards India's freedom and evolving future.
- Tribal Identity: The unique markers of tribal identity like art forms and Dialect & language
- Tribal Education: Eklavya Schools are changing the face of education amongst tribals.
- Tribal Entrepreneurship: Programs that propel tribal community towards greater self-reliance and technology integration.
- Tribal Sports: Indigenous sports and games of rural and tribal people.
