EVENT HIGHLIGHT

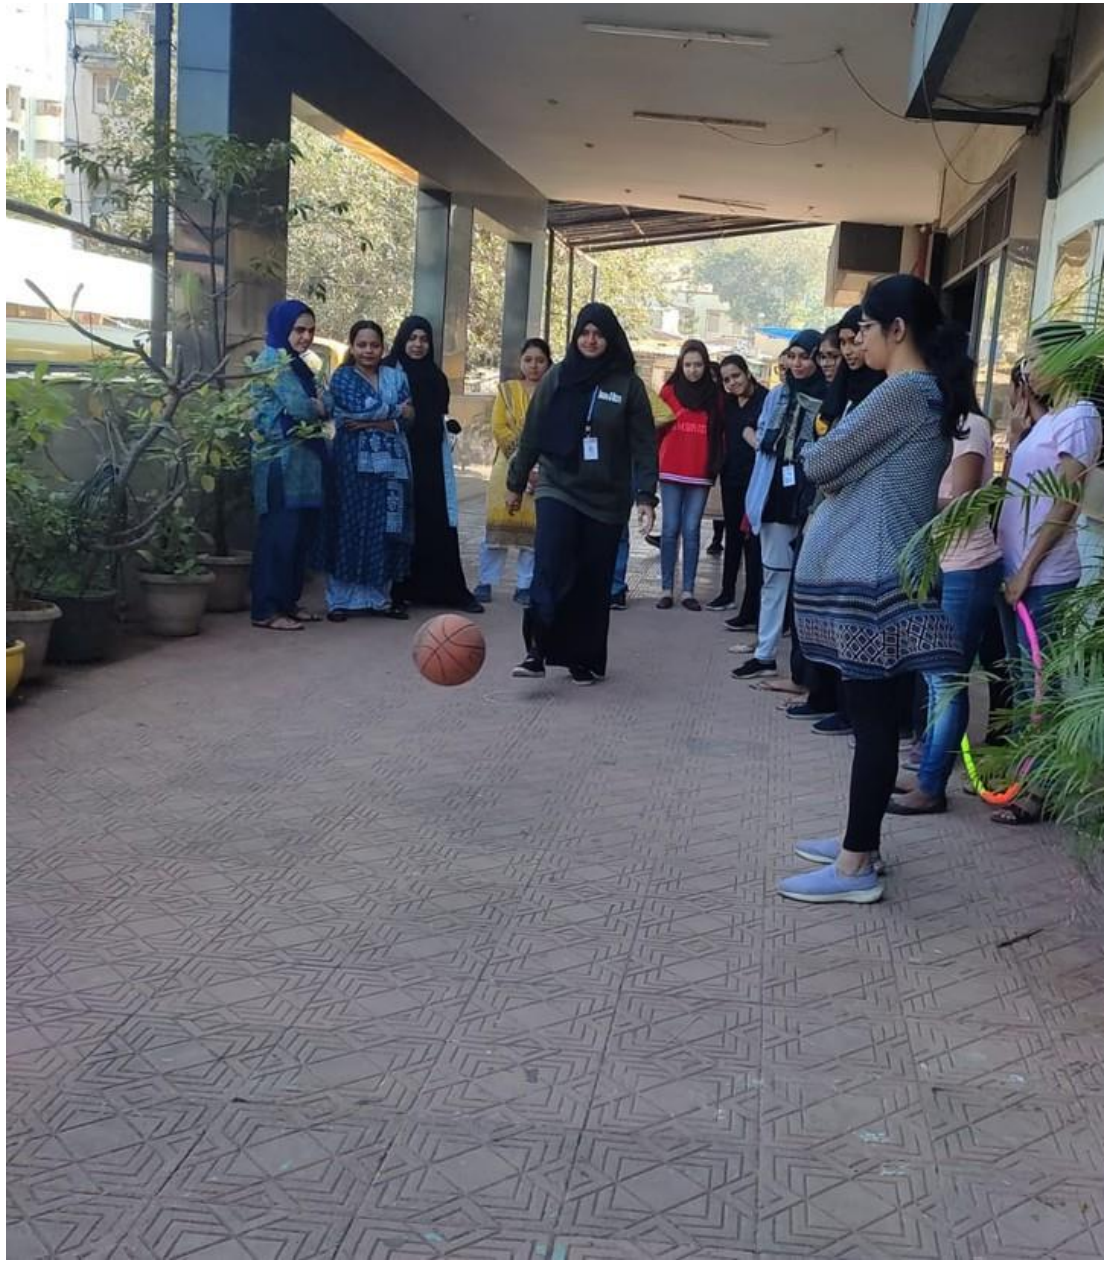

INDOOR GAMES

9th February 2024

The sports day kicked off with a college prayer, followed by the national anthem. Subsequently, students in F.Y. B.Ed and S.Y. B.Ed were instructed to arrange themselves according to their respective house colors, which included red, green, blue, and yellow. Each student was required to participate in at least two games and provide their names to their house captain, indicating their preferred games. Following this, the Carrom, Sudoku, and Chess matches commenced simultaneously, with students divided into two groups for each game, and two rounds were played for each activity. Additional instructions were provided for other games, such as Sudoku, Chess, Hula Hoop, Skipping, and Kickball, which were played in various classrooms and areas across the college campus.

Later, after a short break the other three games began which were Skipping, Hula Hoop and Kick ball, which included two rounds. The games were played in the college premises.

As the student teachers eagerly anticipated the outdoor games to follow, they carried with them the memories of a memorable day filled with sportsmanship, teamwork, and unforgettable experiences.

DAY 2 (OUTDOOR SPORTS)

The second day of outdoor sports commenced with anticipation and a lively ambiance as participants gathered at Juhu Beach on February 10th, 2024. The event began with a warm-up session followed by a series of exciting games. Among the eight games featured were the 50-meter race, the 100-meter race, a three-meter race, the lemon and spoon race, a 50-meter x 4 relay race, shot put, a three-legged race, the potato race, and tug-of-war. The festivities kicked off with the exhilarating potato race, setting the tone for a day filled with enjoyment and friendly competition. Following this, participants engaged in the 50mx4 Relay Race, characterized by the thrilling exchange of a baton between teammates. Subsequent events included the Lemon and Spoon race, various sprint races, and the shot put competition. After a brief intermission, the games resumed with the entertaining three-legged race, challenging pairs of participants to synchronize their movements. Finally, the event culminated in the intense Tug-Of-War competition, spanning two rounds to determine the ultimate victor.

As the day concluded, the results were announced, with the Green House emerging victorious, followed by the Blue House in second place, the Yellow House in third, and the Red House in fourth, marking the culmination of an exhilarating and memorable sports day.

CONCLUSION

As the day came to a close on yet another exhilarating Sports Day, participants reveled in a sense of fulfillment and pride for their collective achievements. Beyond the gleaming trophies and medals, the true essence of the day resided in the enduring friendships forged, invaluable lessons gleaned, and the bonds strengthened through a shared passion for athletics.

With each thrilling competition and spirited exchange, individuals discovered new depths of camaraderie and sportsmanship, solidifying their connections both on and off the field.

Participants carry with them not only the tangible mementos of victory but also the intangible treasures of camaraderie and personal growth. The memories and experiences accumulated on this unforgettable day will serve as guiding beacons, inspiring them to strive for excellence and unity in all their future endeavors.
