

Report On Eid -e- Milad

Rizvi College of Education organized Eid-e-Milad programme on 8th October, 2022. Eid-e-Milad is observed on 12th Rabbiul Awal (Islamic Calendar) every year. This day is observed by Muslims across the world as Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) was born on this day. The programme was scheduled to begin at 2:30 in the college's Method Room.

The poster is for an Eid-e-Milad Un-Nabi event. At the top, it features the Rizvi Education Society's logo on the left and the college's name, 'RIZVI COLLEGE OF EDUCATION', in the center, with '(Affiliated To University Of Mumbai)' below it. To the right is a smaller logo for 'RIZVI COLLEGE OF EDUCATION'. Below this, the text 'STUDENT COUNCIL 2021 - 2023 ORGANISES' is displayed in white on a dark green background. The central image shows a mosque with a large green dome and minarets, set against a white crescent moon and a night sky with clouds. Two golden lanterns hang on either side of the mosque. Below the image, the event title 'Eid-e-Milad Un-Nabi' is written in a stylized font, with 'Timing: 02:30pm to 03:30pm' underneath. The invitation text follows: 'We cordially invite our Principal Mrs. Nahida Mandviwala, our professors Dr. Gyanprakash Arya, Dr. Spoty Karthik, Dr. Priyanka Pandey and all non-teaching staff members to attend the program. Your presence would add an essence of sweetness in the Eid-e-Milad.' At the bottom, the venue is listed as 'Rizvi College of Education, Govind Patil Marg, Khar Danda, Khar (W), Mumbai - 400 052'.

All the faculty members and principal of the college were welcomed by sprinkling gulab jal (rose water) on them. Then, once everyone was seated on their seats, session began.

Session began with Qirat spoken by a student along with the explanation of the same.

A brief introduction about the session was given followed by significance of day said by the students. After this, history and biography of Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) was beautifully communicated by the students.

There was a space in the corner specially dedicated for students to sit and sing naat. After biography was spoken, a beautiful naat 'Maula Ya Salli Wa Sallim' was sung by the group of girls. After this, Qissa (life incidences) of Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) was shared by students which depicted how great personality and great preacher he was!

After that, one more naat ' Tu Kuja Mann Kuja' was sung Melodiously by the group of girls.

Then, a group singing on 'Hasnain ke Nana' was performed. Naat was sung so beautifully that all the people who were listening to it were lost in it.

After that, Salaam was prayed where in everyone stood in praying posture. Once Sallam was completed; session was concluded. Principal of the college came forward and shared her views with everyone. Then, Professor Dr Gyanprakash Arya came forward and addressed everyone. He also gave a good message to the audience. Then, Dr Spoty Karthik followed by Dr Priyanka Pandey came forward, both of them appreciated the hard work of students and each of the two shared their opinions with the class.

A big thank you goes to the college's management, principal, all the faculty members for taking this initiative and organizing this programme. Kudos to all the students who actively participated and together made this programme a memorable one!
