Report on Republic Day

Rizvi College of Education commemorated Republic Day with patriotic fervor and pride, hosting celebrations on both January 25th and 26th, 2023. Organized by FY.B.Ed students, the event on January 25th featured inspiring speeches, patriotic songs, and a lively group dance, evoking emotions of gratitude and reverence for the sacrifices made by our nation's leaders. Principal Mrs. Nahida Mandviwala expressed appreciation for the students' efforts, echoed by other teachers, culminating in a collective rendition of the National Anthem. On January 26th, the celebration continued with a morning event led by FY.B.Ed and SY.B.Ed students, where the national flag was unfurled by the Principals of Rizvi Springfield School (CBSE), Rizvi Springfield School (SSC), and Rizvi College of Education. The solemnity of the occasion was punctuated by a melodious patriotic song and the recitation of the Preamble, concluding with a shared sense of pride and camaraderie captured in commemorative photographs, encapsulating the spirit of unity and patriotism
