

International Women's Day, 8th March, 2024 The Women's Day celebration at Rizvi College commenced on March 8th, 2024, with cultural performances and the felicitation of women achievers. Dr. Akhtar Hasan Rizvi and Advocate Mrs. Rubina Akhtar Hasan Rizvi lit the ceremonial lamp, symbolizing empowerment and unity. The event honoured outstanding women contributions and highlighted stories of resilience, including those of survivors and specially-abled individuals. NGOs supporting marginalized communities were recognized for their commendable work and were felicitated. Speakers from organizations like Acid Survivor Support Team and ASWWF shared inspiring narratives, emphasizing solidarity. Ms. Sharika Esther Sharma member of People Against Rapes in India discussed PARI's role in advocating against sexual violence. Mrs. Pranali Paresh Shah with her team from Acid Survivors & Women Welfare Foundation shared their journey of empowering acid survivors. Mrs. Saraswati Bajaj administrative volunteer at Honey comb Bal Ashram were felicitated for their commendable work towards empowering through education of abandoned girls. Female employees of Rizvi College of Education were commended, showcasing institutional support for women. The celebration aimed to amplify women's voices, celebrate their achievements, and foster an inclusive environment, concluding with a renewed commitment to unity and empowerment within the Rizvi Education Society.

Event Brochure

Female employees of RCoEd being felicitated on the occasion of IWD

Felicitations of PARI –People Against Rapes in India – Award received by Ms. Sharika Esther Sharma –Member PARI

Dance performance by RCoEd student-teachers

Members of Honeycomb Bal Ashram felicitated for empowering abandoned girl child

Felicitations of the Members of Acid Survivors & Women Welfare Foundation