Emotional Intelligence to Social Intelligence: A Paradigm Shift

The one day, ICSSR (Mumbai) sponsored, organized by Rizvi College of Arts, Science, Commerce and Teacher Education began with full enthusiasm on 30th November 2015 at the seminar hall of Rizvi Educational Complex. The programme began as scheduled with breakfast being served to all participants and guests. Thereafter, Mrs. K.V Chandna( Seminar Convener) welcomed all the guests and participants with her welcome address. She made the audience aware of the vision and mission of the institution and how this seminar was a way forward to achieve the same. The president of Rizvi Education Society Dr. Akhtar Rizvi conveyed his blessings and wishes in absentia. The guest of honor, Mr. B.D Puri, Education Officer with Department of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education was welcomed and introduced by Mr. Gyanprakash Arya, Organizing member. He was presented a token of appreciation by Mrs. K.V Chandna. Mr. B.D Puri addressed the gathering in an encouraging manner and stressed on how human relations are becoming more and more digitized. He pointed out how teachers of today need to be effective communicators in order to assist students in school. He also stressed on the need of teachers being multilingual so as to effectively communicate with students. His session was an eye opener and encouraged the idea of social relations for progress.

The keynote session was delivered by Dr. Gautam Gawli, Professor, Dept. of Applied Psychology, University of Mumbai. His session titled, 'Emotional Intelligence to Social Intelligence: A Paradigm Shift' focused on the evolution of intelligence from old times to the current scenario. He very effectively put forth how paradigm shifts in the domain of intelligence were achieved over a period of time. His session was interactive and full of practical examples from the area of social psychology. The session ended with a feedback and question answer session.

The chairpersons for the paper presentation sessions, Dr. Sheela Taori, accomplished Educationist and Dr. Geeta Shetty, Associate Professor, St. Xavier's College of Education were welcomed and introduced by Dr. Shamim Moulvi, Organizing Member and Dr. Abha Marathe, Organizing member respectively. They were handed a token of appreciation as well by Mrs. Indira Gopinatha, Teacher Educator and Dr. Anjum Ara, Vice Principal, Rizvi College of Arts, Science and Commerce.

The vote of thanks for the morning session was put forward by Dr.M.Z.Farooqui, Principal, Rizvi College of Arts, Science, Commerce and Teacher Education. The gathering broke for the two parallel paper presentation sessions thereafter.

The paper presentation sessions were held in parallel in two different rooms. A total of 23 papers were submitted by different participants across India. Of the 22 papers,6 papers were presented in absentia. (See Appendix: 1)

The sessions were chaired and reported in written form ( See Appendix: 2)

The paper presentations ended with a reflection from the audience and the chairpersons. Thereafter Lunch was served to all the participants and guests, coupled up with wonderful interactions over lunch.The post lunch session began with the introduction of Dr. Swaroop Rawal, Educationist and Theater Actor. Dr. Rawal was introduced by Mrs. K.V Chandna and a token of appreciation was presented by Mrs. Spoty Karthik, Organizing member. The session titled, ‘Enhancing Social Skills through Art, Drama and Theater’ was an enriching one. She spoke on various elements of Drama and Theatre that can be used by teachers to enhance their classroom teaching. She shared her experience of working with children from villages and how games and drama is an effective technique to enhance their personality. Her session was received well by the audience.

Thereafter Tea was served to the audience. The valedictory session was held in the presence of Dr. Sheela Taori, who gave her valuable inputs and put forward her overall reflection of the national seminar. She congratulated the Organizing team for their efforts. The vote of thanks for the session was put forward by Dr. Shamim.Moulvi, Organizing Member. Feedback forms (See Appendix: 3) were collected to gauge the impact of the seminar for future. Certificates were distributed to the participants/paper presenters. The national seminar concluded by paying respect to the nation by singing the national anthem.
