Activity Summary Report: Inclusive Fashion Show

The Inclusive Education Cell of Rizvi College of Education organized a vibrant and meaningful event titled “Inclusive Fashion Show” on 5th May, 2025, from 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. The event aimed to blend creativity with the principles of inclusivity, diversity, and representation in education, providing student teachers with a unique platform for expression and experiential learning. Student teachers from the S.Y. B.Ed. (Batch 2023–2025) participated enthusiastically by designing and presenting Fashion Portrait Boards on ten inclusive categories such as Adaptive Fashion, Cultural Fusion, Gender Fluidity, Body Positivity, and Sustainable Fashion. Each pair creatively modeled and explained their outfits, demonstrating how fashion can serve as a medium for inclusion, equality, and empathy. Students from the F.Y. B.Ed. (Batch 2024–2026) attended as observers, gaining valuable insights into inclusive representation through art and design. The event was judged by Ms. Farrah Z. Kerawalla, Assistant Professor, Bombay Teachers' Training College, HSNC University, Mumbai, who appreciated the creativity, thematic coherence, and confidence of the participants. Feedback from participants and attendees reflected overwhelming positivity—46.7% rated the event Excellent and the rest as Very Good or Good. Students shared that the show helped them challenge stereotypes and explore fashion as a powerful avenue for representation. The experience was described as empowering, confidence-building, and deeply educational. The Inclusive Fashion Show successfully merged creativity, pedagogy, and inclusivity, allowing student teachers to internalize inclusive values and present them through innovative expression. The event concluded with an interactive reflection and a vote of thanks, reaffirming the message that fashion—like education—is for everyone.
